Dear Mrs Gardner

The short answer to your question is yes, there is an increase in height and I have asked the architect to produce the attached sketch to show this.

I apologise, it looks like I neglected to submit the survey drawing of the elevations with the application. This is also attached

Please let me know if you have any concerns regards

Giles

Dear Mr Dixon,
I refer to the above application. I note that reroofing and dormers are proposed and I would appreciate receipt of either existing elevation plans or comparative cross sections to demonstrate if there is any increase in the height of the property proposed.

Anita Gardner
