DISTRICT COUNCIL

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

DECISION NOTICE

Application Ref: FP/154/08/

1 To Addressee

Mr K Trotman
40 Pagham Road
Bognor Regis
West Sussex
PO21 4NP

2 Site Address

44 Firs Avenue
Felpham

3 Description of Development

To build a two bedroom chalet bungalow with materials to match existing building, demolish existing garage

4 In pursuance of their powers under this Act and related Orders and Regulations the Council REFUSE to approve the development as described in the application and plan for the reasons stated.

REASON 1 The site by virtue of its size and shape, is considered unsuitable to accommodate a 3 bedroom chalet bungalow and private amenity space satisfactorily without damaging the character of this established residential area. The proposal would therefore result in an unduly cramped form of development which would be detrimental to the character and amenities of the surrounding residential area, contrary to policies DEV1, LOC1 of the West Sussex Structure Plan and GEN7 of the Arun District Local Plan.

REASON 2 The development by virtue of its size, scale, bulk, and siting within the site, would result in an adverse overbearing and overshadowing form of development which would be detrimental to the residential amenities of the occupiers of the neighbouring property to the south, contrary to policies DEV1 of the West Sussex Structure Plan and GEN7 of the Arun District Local Plan.

NOTES RELATING TO PLANNING APPLICATION
TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

APPEALS TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE

If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the First Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

If you want to appeal, then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice using a form which you can get from the Planning Inspectorate, Customer Support Unit, Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol, BS1 6PN.

The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but he will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.

The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to him that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.

In practice, the Secretary of State does not refuse to consider appeals solely because the local planning authority based their decision on a direction given by him.

PURCHASE NOTICES

If either the local planning authority or the First Secretary of State refused permission to develop land or grants it subject to conditions, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor render the land capable of a reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted.

In these circumstances, the owner may serve a purchase notice on the District Council in whose area the land is situated. This notice will require the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of the Town & Country Planning Act 1990.
