Hi Ms Malik

Ah, I have found the mistake.

The actual to scale floor plan is done in excel using their exact measurement tool

The extension is 360cm which is 3.6cm at 1:100 by 184cm which Ive done at 1.8cm

Actual sheet attached too which shows the exact measurement calculus I've used

Clearly converting it a PDF to fit one page has distorted it.

I attach the excel as we all real size PDF of this doc which hopefully will make you sigh relief. You are kindly patient.

Massive thank you again. Getting there and exhausting you I know. Thks

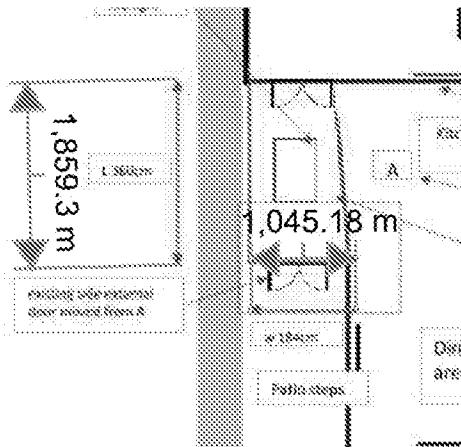

Chris

Hi,

Could you please confirm the scale as I'm measuring it at 1:100 and this is what it's showing it as. As the drawing is scaled 1:100, 1cm= 1:100 so if the proposed extension is for example 1.8m by 3.6m it would be shown as 1.6cm x 1.4cm

Kind Regards
Iqraa Malik

Hi Ms Malik

Try again

The measurements attached are exactly what excel is showing ie 3.6 cm and 1.8cm across for the extension.

I am sorry but hopefully the attached is correct as redone and relabelled.

Thank you v much

Hi Chris,

The measurements on this new plan appear to be the same as the old?

Hi,

No worries. I've had a quick look over the floor plan and it doesn't measure to the 1:100 scale listed on the plan. I've attached a screenshot below. Please amend.

Kind Regards

Hi Ms Malik

I thought I'd done that, clearly not. Sorry

Is this what you are after.

Thank you for your help again.

Good afternoon,

Thank you for getting back to me.

Unfortunately your application is still invalid for the following reasons:

CIL: This has not been received, I have attached a blank copy for you fill in, please return this via email.

Location Plan: The scale bar on this is unclear, could this please provide a clearer version?

Block Plan: The red line on this must match the one on the location plan, please amend.

Elevations: We will also require the side elevation where you'll be removing the door.

Floor Plans: Please add room labels.

Kind Regards
Ms Malik

Hello Ms Malik / Sian and thanks for your help. I really do appreciate it and your kind advice.

I filled a CIL in on the online planning portal – please can you check that this hasn't already been done please as it told me it had been completed.

I am sorry about my Block and Location plans

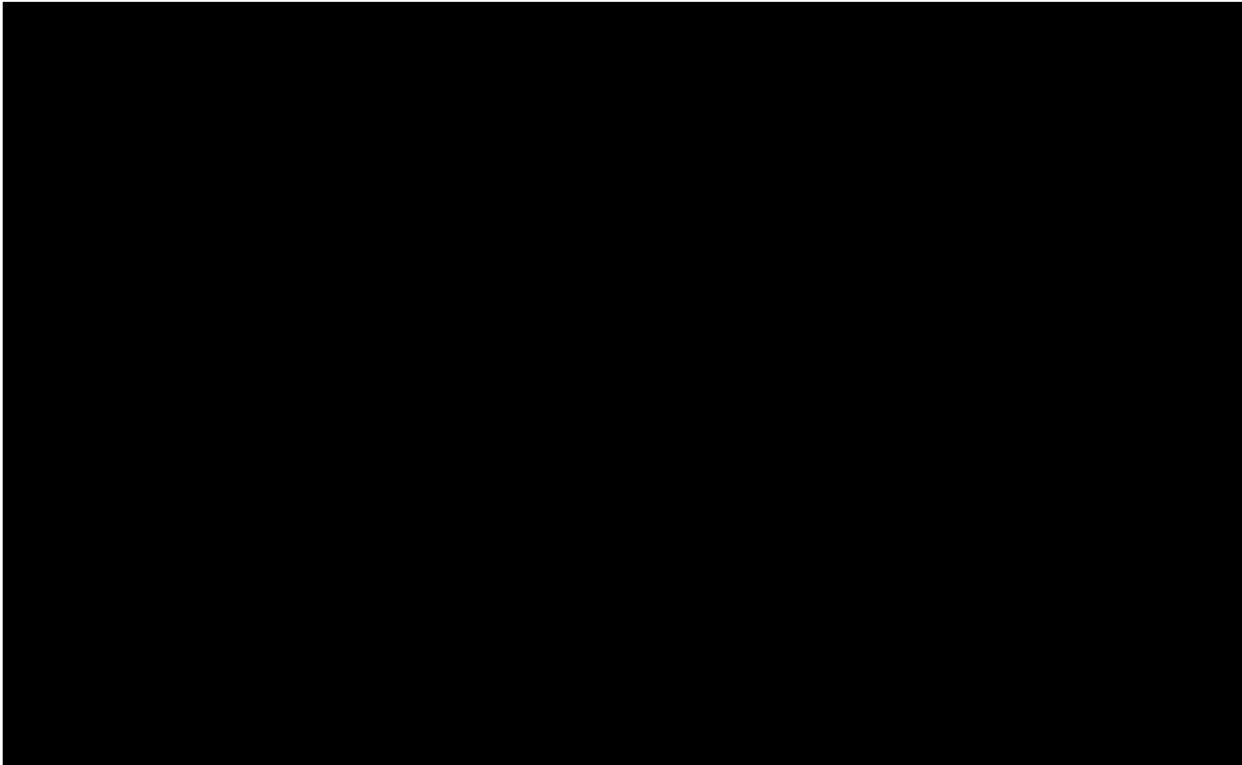

I now attach all plans in PDF format

The company I used sent me the location plans with the house boundary also in red. Ive managed to get that changed as per your instructions and I hope they are correct now.

Thank you again and please shout if Im not doing it right still ! I hope I am.

All the best Ms Malik

Chris

Good afternoon,

Your application is currently invalid for the reasons below:

CIL: I have attached a blank copy, please fill this in and return via email.

Plans: All plans must be in PDF format and they require a scale. Please amend.

Block Plan: This must also be in PDF format with dimensions from the proposed extension to the site boundaries. Please amend.

Location Plan: The red outline must only be around the site boundary. Please amend this and update your block plan to match the new red outline on the location plan.

Kind Regards

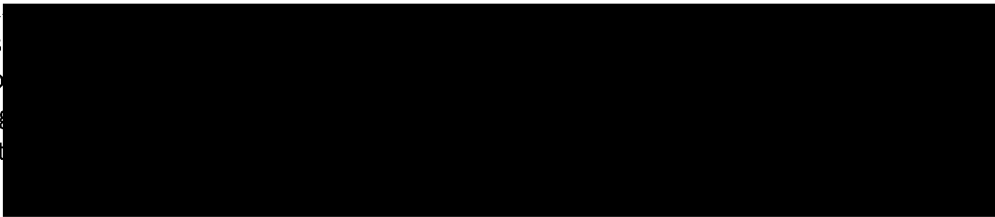

Ms Malik

Dear Sian

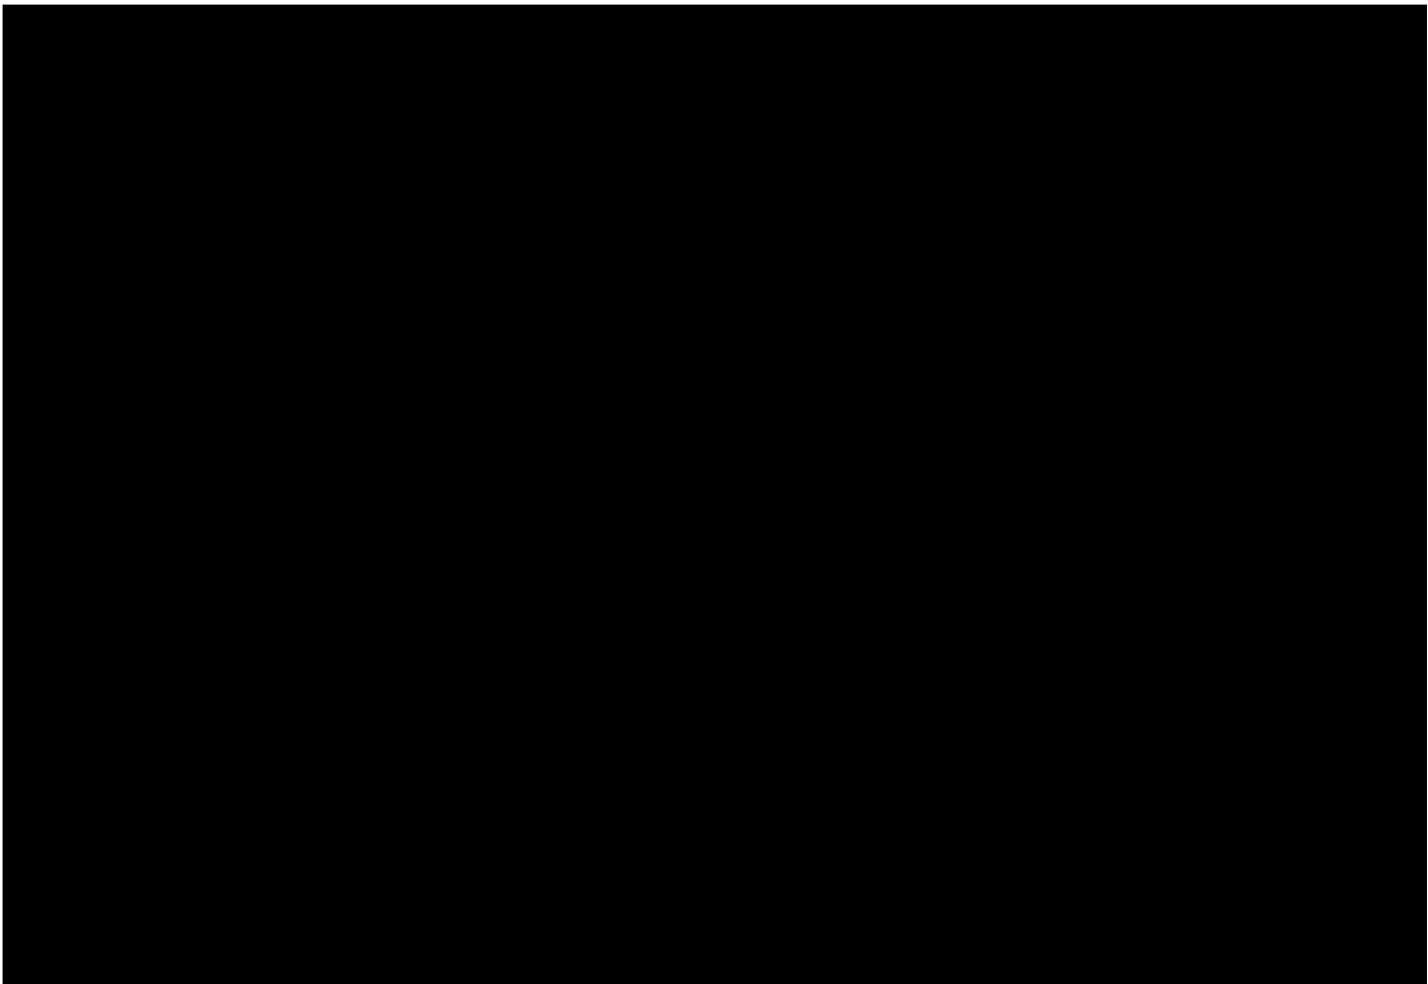

Thanks a lot for getting back so quickly, I am grateful.

I apologise if my Location and Block Plans were not received – the planning portal said they were. I attach them now and please let me know these are what you are after.

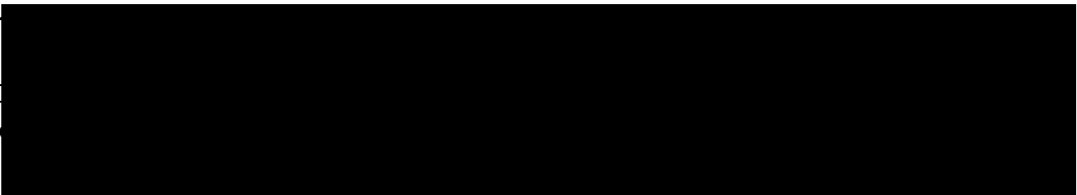

With regards Elevation I also thought these had been attached on the planning portal. I am sorry as trying my best to get stuff sorted. I attach what I think are elevation plans you are after to scale

I appreciate your help and if you can confirm that the attached are the required missing docs that would be great.

Thanks a lot for guidance.
