Dear Michael,

Many thanks for your explanation I can understand the predicament. I had wondered whether it might have been a hybrid meeting with members in attendance in the chamber and public speakers online.

In respect of the S106, I was liaising yesterday with both my clients lawyers, the CLT and Town Council so it is certainly progressing well.

Kind Regards,
Guy.

Dear Guy,

The Planning Committee meeting on 23rd June 2021 has been cancelled. The intention was to hold an actual meeting in the Council Chamber at the ADC Offices in Littlehampton, but with the Government announcement that the Covid-19 restrictions would not be lifted on 21st June, a decision has been taken to cancel the meeting.

I have everything I need for the outline planning application for Land at Ford Road, Arundel.

It would be good if we could progress the Section 106 Agreement.

Kind regards,

Michael

Dear Michael,

I have just received this letter from ADC which states that the ford Road Application will no longer be heard at Planning Committee on 23rd June. Please could you let me have an urgent update on this as I had understood you had everything you needed in order to progress this to Planning Committee for resolution?

Kind Regards,
Guy.
