Hi Sian

Please find attached the documents requested as promised. The block plan is from uk planning maps and doesn't have the conservatory on it. Plans and elevations are scaled at 1:100.

Kind Regards

Dear Fiona Rose

Thank you for your email,

Floor plans are required as the footprint of the building is being changed as a conservatory is being demolished in a CA, we ask for existing and proposed so we are able to clearly see the changes and are able to measure them, as a change is being proposed to the footprint elevations are henceforth also required. A block plan is a local requirement and Arun council ask for one with every application.

If there is anything further I can help you with please don't hesitate to get in touch

Kind Regards

Sian
