Hi Anita – This is a pretty straightforward 'yes', from my point of view. They did have pre-app and the doors are a result of BRegs....

Application Number	AB/18/18/PL
Address	Norfolk Arms Hotel 22 High Street Arundel BN18 9AB
Description	Proposed new internal doors to third floor & proposed internal finishes to ground floor 'Town Bar' This application affects the character and appearance of Arundel Conservation Area
Case Officer	Mrs A Gardner
Date	27 TH March 2018

I visited the site to discuss the above via Pre-App on 31.1.18

The Norfolk Arms is Grade II Listed and within Arundel Conservation Area.

1. BEDROOM DOORS: The proposed works to new 3rd Floor bedrooms are Approved via Application AB/23/16/L and AB/22/16/PL (Reserved by Condition). This application seeks to make alterations/replacements to 3rd Floor doors, following detailed inspection of the doors during the course of works, and advice from Building Inspector. The existing doors have had the existing applied ply panels removed, and the door underneath found to be non-historic and in very poor repair. It is considered that their loss does not have an adverse impact on the property, and their replacement is balanced with the need for compliant fire doors.

It is considered that the style of the doors is acceptable in general terms in regard to applied profiled panels and handles (these may be reclaim or new 'traditional' style) to meet Building Regulations.

2. TOWN BAR: The existing bar appears to have been modernised/updated via Listed Building Consent achieved in the 1950's, although anecdotal evidence supplied by the client suggests works may have been undertaken in the 1970's. Investigation prior to works reveal the original ceiling to exist above a thin board/profiled ceiling, and ply to walls. The ply is in poor repair and the applicant wishes to make good and paint with Farrow & Ball Studio Green. This item is recommended for approval.

The applicant wishes to improve the appearance of the stone fire surround, also believed to be non-historic and part of the 1970's cosmetic works. It is desired by the applicant that the stonework is made good via application of lime plaster, to which the desired metro tiles in Victorian Green can be applied. This item is recommended for approval.
