Dear Planning Team,

This sculpture would be a wonderful addition to Arundel's greening strategy. It will showcase the swift conservation efforts of the town in addition to the reputation of Arundel as a centre for art and creativity.

Positioning the sculpture at one of the entrances to the town will broaden awareness of these beautiful creatures to those both visiting and passing the town.

These birds desperately need our help to survive, and in my opinion, this sculpture will serve to remind us all of this.

With kind regards,

Dr Anne Reaveley
9 Arun Street,
Arundel
