Dear Planners,

I would like to comment on planning application AB/23/19/PL.

I have lived for nearly 40 years almost opposite the premises concerned.

The site is a very important one in historic Arundel, occupying the corner of two carefully preserved streets, Arun Street and Tarrant Street.

I am unable to see details of the proposed conversion from shop to two dwellings, but I am concerned by the outside appearance in what is a protected street scene.

Unless the existing shop windows are to be preserved, the owner will need to have a very experienced architect in order to respect the fenestration of neighbouring listed buildings.

May I point out that a very old carved stone sign saying Arun Street has been uncovered fairly recently on the actual corner building. It is not easy to see, but these small things, as well as major conversions like this, are important in an historic town.

Yours sincerely

Ann Sutton
