

Heritage Statement

The part of the house that we would like to demolish is at the back of the house and can not be seen from the road or from any other public viewpoint.

The hallway section of the extension is a modern flat roof construction made of painted brick and the outbuilding, although constructed earlier is not listed. None of the house is listed.

We are not aware that this extension constitutes a heritage asset.