Good Afternoon Richard

Despite several phone calls and commitments from you to call back I still don't have a response on the single question that is holding up this revised application. I have tried to call again today and can't get through. Could you please respond as soon as possible?

Regards
Clare

Afternoon Richard

Could I please have a response on whether we can amend the red line on this site to include the parking that has been moved from the south to the north of the site in a layby arrangement?

Kind regards
