Dear Daun

Thank you for the below messages.

We believe that this application does not constitute a change of use as described in the Use Class Order. The space will merely be used differently within the current office use (B1(a)).

We applied for the same change a while back (but without the dormer windows; application AB/89/18/PL) and at the time the fee of £234 was found acceptable. Please find attached the validation letter of that application, for your information.

Perhaps the description of the proposal should not contain the words "Change of Use"? Might "Loft Conversion" or "Internal Alterations" work?

Please let us know your view.

Many Thanks

Jochen Driessle

Mr Driessle,

Further to my below email, I have just noticed that you have not paid the full amount for a change of use application. A change of use application is £462.00 so a further £228.00 is due before I can validate the application.

You may pay the balance of £228.00 on our website, www.arun.gov.uk, quoting reference AB/59/20/PL.

If you have any questions please let me know.

Thank you
Mrs Johnson

Mr Driessle,

I just received your voice mail concerning the above.

I do apologise. I did not notice that the pdf had multiple pages to it.

I have looked at the floor plans and elevations and they are all fine.

Again, I do apologise for my oversight.

I understand from your voice mail you will be sending the CIL form.

If you have any other questions, please let me know.

Thank you
Mrs Johnson
