Dear Anita Gardner,

I appreciate your email. Whilst it frustrating I understand your caseloads and pressures.

Some feedback by the end of this week would be ideal if you can manage it.

Kind regards,

Dear Mr Joyce,

I apologise that I still haven't had a chance to review your application. A decision is very unlikely this week. I am currently focusing on writing up an urgent major application report and will then revert to other applications, though your application is not one of the oldest. If I have an opportunity to look at the application and provide you with feed back by the end of the week I will do so, but I am then on leave for 2 weeks so it is very unlikely that the application will be determined before the end of the month.

Regards

Anita Gardner.

Dear Anita Gardner,

Have you had a chance to review the change of use application at 39 High Street, Arundel yet? Do you expect to get a decision out next week?

As before if you need anything from our side please advise.

Kind regards,

Dear Mr Joyce,

At this stage I have not looked at your application in any detail. If further clarification/information is required I will come back to you.

I have carried out the site visit. I don't need to look at the premises internally.

There are no other consultation responses I am awaiting. However I should advise that the application is unlikely to be progressed earlier than the date the decision is due, given the size of my case load and the number of urgent applications I have to put time to ahead of yours.

Regards

Anita Gardner

Dear Anita Gardner,

I write with regard the change of use to B1 offices application at 39 High Street, Arundel which I understand you are the Case Officer for.

I note consultations on the Register from the Conservation Officer, Conservation Advisory Group and Arundel Town Council. Each of who raise no objection. Are you expecting further consultations and if so by when do you expect them?

Do you need anything from our side to assist with determining the application by 5th August?

Will you need to carry out a site visit?

Kind regards,
