

The building that cuts into the garden on the north east boundary is No 6 Fitzalan Road. What is shown as No 6 is now No 6a. What looks like buildings on the Mallards side of the north east boundary are long gone greenhouses from the days when the property was owned by the first owner occupier, Mr Bill Ayling.