Dear David

Thank you for the revised plan attached. I have discussed with Ian Wightman and he is relatively happy, subject the fabric being removed not being historic. His comments are below. As such a revised application may be more favourable subject to confirmation/detail within the application that historic fabric would not be removed; I believe you have previously confirmed this in discussion.

I trust this is of assistance

Regards
 Peter

Peter,

This seems to be an improvement. I think we can probably agree to this if the fabric being removed is not historic.

Thanks

Ian

Dear Peter

As discussed last week, I attach revised plans of the above. By comparison to the original proposal, this scheme removes only the pier between the existing door opening and window opening, and the small section of wall below the window, all of which was rebuilt when the present kitchen extension was built.

I would be grateful to receive your initial informal comments before resubmitting the application.
