Hi Harry,

Sorry, been out of the office last few days and bit behind. Will get the sequential stuff over to you as soon as I can.

No issues with extension of time as suggested. Would be surprised if we don't need to extend again to be frank, so happy to agree a longer date if you think sensible?

Many thanks

Lee

Dear Lee,

As you are aware, we are experiencing delays with responses from our Drainage Engineers. I am unclear as to the exact timelines for a consultation response to this application, but we are conscious the application is due to expire tomorrow, and we have no comments yet. Could we request an extension of time until 22/08/25 whilst we await their response?

Also, have you any update with respects to the Sequential Test property searches discussed last week?

Many thanks,
