

HERITAGE STATEMENT

52 Tarrant Street, Arundel, West Sussex

Introduction:

Number 52 Tarrant Street is a terraced town house of the mid-19th Century. It is of red brick with grey headers in recessed panels. There is a pitched slate roof and there are red brick chimneys. The house is on 3 storeys with a semi-basement, double hung sash windows and a panelled door with moulding and semi-circular fanlight over. There are 5 ashlar steps to the door flanked by brick walls and ashlar coping, and iron railings with spear finials which enclose the area.

The Listed Building Consent application relates to a re-arrangement of the existing modern studwork on the second floor, which involves revised connections to existing drainage and soil and vent pipes that fall to the main drainage to the rear of the building.

No alteration involve the loss of historic fabric of the building.

Andrew Fuller FRICS 09.07.19

52 Tarrant Street, Arundel