Dear Alex,

I will forward this e-mail to be scanned against the application.

As long as the proposed materials accord with those identified on the approved elevation plans then there is no need to submit details for approval as, as correctly state, there is no materials condition imposed on the planning decision notice.

Regards

Anita

Dear Anita,

I hope you're well.

As you are dealing with all things Gas Works, Arundel, I am pleased to attach a note from my client confirming the intended materials to be used in the construction of the apartments. They are as per the approved drawing spec.

Whilst we note that there is no condition stipulating any requirement to submit materials or samples my client is keen to ensure that you are kept in the loop in any event to avoid any surprises down the line.

I trust the attached is of interest.

Kind regards,

Alex Munro [REDACTED]
