

Proposed site of single storey container to the rear of the Norfolk Centre, Mill Road, Arundel

Surface water drainage

The container is made of steel with a completely flat roof. There are no falls or gutters. The surface area is no bigger than the area of ground upon which the container is sited.

Any rain that falls on the roof therefore runs off the container onto the ground and thus no more water is generated than if the container had not been there.