Good morning Simon

Thanks for your email and apologies for the delay. I've been away from the office for a couple of weeks and have just returned.

I have already forwarded it onto the applicant, and welcome your update that Martyn raises no objections. Given that there appear to be no issues with the application, I would hope that you can process the decision/recommendation as soon as possible. Pushing it into January would be frustrating given that it could be a simple process to approve. Obviously appreciate your intensive workload, and happy to assist quickly if you have any queries which need addressing.

Thanks Simon, keep me up to date.

Kind regards

Chris Purdy BA Arch

Dear Harvey,

There are 10 other applications in the list above yours but I am also having to write up reports in December for our January Committee Meeting. I may be able to work on your applications during week commencing 17/12/18 – and will pencil you into my calendar. If not then it will be early January.

You may wish to note that Martyn White has recently provided his consultation comments and raised no objections.

Kind Regards

Good afternoon Simon,

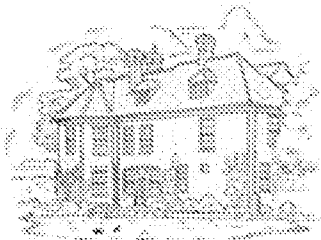

My apologies for leaving a long and slightly confusing voicemail message. I wanted to ask if you could give me an update on our listed building consent application for Nyton House. I fully appreciate Arun must be snowed under, I think the consolation period was due to end on the 12th November.

Could you find time to give us an update and provide a expected timescale for our application (submitted 7th September by Chris Purdy – MH Architects).

Kind regards,

Harvey
