

Application No: AL/107/21/PL

I agree with the conclusions of the desk-based heritage assessment with regard to the likely potential that this site has to contain structures and deposits of archaeological interest. I also agree that this merits further investigation through field evaluation in advance of development and that this, together with any further measures to ensure appropriate conservation of significance, should be secured via the imposition of standard archaeology condition ARC1.

James Kenny
Archaeology advisor
21/09/2021