Dear Kate,

Further to the changes you made to the location and block plans, it has been brought to my attention that your red edge drawing suggests that land is part of Old Dairy Lane when in fact it is parking to East Barn (East Barn is not marked on the below but is directly above The Hovel and borders Old Dairy Lane). The below is a LR plan I have seen sent on the left and your red edge plan on the right. I have also been sent the attached purporting to show your clients ownership in yellow. I say purporting because I don't have access to the LR title deeds etc. to check this myself.

If the red edge has indeed been shown to include land not in your client's ownership, then can you either amend the red edge or serve notice on the owners of the land.

Kind Regards

Simon
