Dear Ms Malik

Thank you for your email.

Please find attached drawing 3b as requested. Adjoining yard also owned by applicants edged in blue.

I trust this application can now be validated.

Any queries please contact.

Dear Mr Bone,

Thank you for providing the amended information.

However, this application is still invalid as the red outline must be one solid outline. Along with this, you don't need to include the yard in the outline. Please amend.

Kind Regards
Ms Malik

Dear Ms Malik

Please find attached corrected CIL form as requested together with the site & location plans vehicle access outlined in red as requested. The previous site & location plans indicated the adjacent yard also owned by the applicants together and other land subject to a vehicular & pedestrian right of way etc. Please advise if the relevant notice should be served on other parties.

I confirm the revised application description is acceptable.

With regard to the Lidsey foul water treatment the property is already connected to the public foul sewer.

Any queries please contact.
