Claire,

Understood, we will agree to the extension to allow time for consultation.

Perhaps you can give me a call next week once you have time to review the additional information.

Kind regards

Robert Turner

Rob,

Thank you for submitted the additional information. As we will need to consult on and consider the information, please can you agree an extension in time until the 8th March. This would enable to consultation period to conclude and allow the application to be taken to Committee on the 6th March (if the decision is for approval), or a delegated decision following consultation (if refusal).

Kind regards

Claire
