To think that someone is seriously considering putting 400 houses here is absolutely mind boggling! Not just for the fact that I will have (godforbid this passes!) someone's back garden that backs directly onto mine which inevitably means someone's windows will look out over my garden so that's my privacy gone! With 400 houses obviously comes families, children included. Where are they going to school? What about the drs that are already bursting at the seams! There are only 2 primary schools in walking distance and 1 secondary school. Make it make sense. The field already floods with sewage not to mention the new flooding that has now started happening down church lane (eastergate) Traffic is already horrendous in rush hour let alone adding new roads to add to this. This is a village not a town. SIX VILLAGES!
