Hi Simon,

Further to my email below I can confirm (having conferred with the client and team) land ownership was checked (overlaid etc) with the benefit of title information prior to making our submission.

Attached are the relevant Title plans showing extents as relevant in this particular case.

I'm advised there is no encroachment of our site into the Paddock and to me the attached title doesn't support the 'thin' red line suggested by the owner of the Paddock.

I hope that clarifies matters and shows the application (in terms of Notice/Certificates) is correct.

Kind regards,

Nigel Jarvis MRTPI
Director
