Dear Peter,

Happy New Year.

I have been looking at this application and one of my tasks is to check and confirm that the CIL form accurately reflects the submission. On the previous application, the agents provided an accommodation schedule (attached fyi) which I was able to use to assist with measuring and checking a sample of the house type plans. Can you provide something similar again please.

I also note that the CIL form is considerably different this time around. It does now take account of the demolition of no. 24 which the previous version did not do. However, I also note that the total floorspace for market housing is now 7,730m² whereas it was previously 9,007m². There is no change in the overall number of homes so are you able to clarify why there is a 1,500m² difference?

Kind Regards

Simon
