Dear Robert,

Thanks for your email.

Please see the attached objection from County Drainage. Note ref their 3rd point, this is due to our blocking software which outputs docs in b&w and reduces the quality. You may wish to ensure there is no personal data (signatures, personal email addresses, mobile numbers) in any revisions to avoid the need for redaction or I may be able to send the originals direct to the consultee.

I reviewed the scheme on 30 January, but I need to discuss with my Team Leader tomorrow before I share my thoughts. I can meet with you over Teams next week (19/20/21 Feb).

Kind Regards

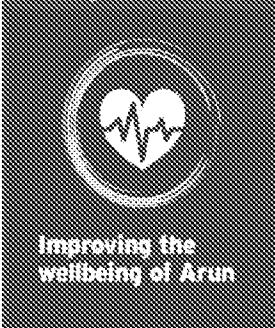

Simon

Hi Simon

Further to our previous discussions, our team has reviewed the consultation responses received in relation to the above, but are holding off any amendments until we have all comments. I am aware that you are due to review the application and would be pleased to arrange a meeting with you to discuss any of your comments and progression of the application. Are you able to let me have any convenient dates, to all us to programme a meeting?

I look forward to hearing from you.

Thanks

Rob
