Dear Megan,

I write further to our telephone call earlier today. The next available planning committee is the 8th of September for which reports must be agreed by the 20th August (but in reality reports should be with Team Leaders earlier that week). Based on what you have told me about plan changes, I do not believe that we will need to re-advertise the application but I have to reserve final judgement for now. Assuming, no re-advertisement and that I have your amended plans plus response to the NE objection by Friday 13th August then I can revise the Appropriate Assessment and Officer Report and put the application forward for inclusion on the Ctte agenda but I will not have the benefit of a further NE consultation response at that point.

Please also note that I spoke with Mark Warwick earlier today and he said that he would be able to review the draft plans this week.

Kind Regards
