Dear Louise,

I am unable to formally issue an extension. However, we will not be making a decision on this immediately after the consultation expiry date so it will be fine if you issue your comments after the Easter weekend or even the following week.

Kind Regards

Dear Simon,

I note that the closing date for comments on the above planning application is shown as 9th April 2020. The Aldingbourne, Barnham and Eastergate CLT has been in discussion with the applicants about the provision of affordable housing on the site for people with a local connection to the parishes and will be submitting comments, but cannot do so by today's deadline.

We held our bi monthly Board meeting online on Monday and are meeting the applicants on zoom later which may resolve questions. We hope to submit comments after Easter. Please bear with us as covid 19 is placing greater pressure on some of our volunteer Board members.

I believe local authorities – including Parish Councils – were only allowed last Saturday to hold meetings online so presumably you will be extending the deadline to allow Aldingbourne Parish Council to give the required notice for their planning meeting and to submit comments?

Kind regards,

Chairman,
Aldingbourne, Barnham and Eastergate Community Land Trust (ABE CLT)
