Dear Sirs

Reference AL/31/22PL

We strongly object to the above planning application to build 4 new homes on land adjoining Ryefields Farmhouse. The plot in question is surrounded by private land and has no direct access onto adopted Council maintained public roads or pavement. We have been residents in this lane for the past 25 years and it seems the old adage is very appropriate 'if you don't at first succeed, try, try and try again'. We have endured numerous rehashed versions of this application which have all been refused for very good reasons.

At the point our estate finishes the continuation of the lane is just a narrow 'pot holed' rutted dirt track which has never been properly maintained and does not form part of the development so cannot be upgraded. It is narrow and only allows a single car width and frankly any delivery lorries will certainly struggle. There is no pavement after our estate finishes. The new proposal is they intend to construct one giving walkers and cyclists access but seems lacking in detail as to how, in light of the fact the strip of land separating us and the development is not theirs to develop?

I would also ask the planning officers to consider the following points;

During the construction stage potentially very large articulated delivery trucks will be used for delivery of materials and machinery to this site which can be in excess of 16 metres, what plans are included for turning these vehicles on site and indeed for accessing our small narrow estate roads?

Where are the builders and all of the construction team intending to park their private vehicles whilst on site?

Our roads are private and therefore maintained at the residents costs. Who will be responsible for the clearing of site waste dirt & dust which inevitably will build up and any damage caused by construction vehicles?

We have thousands of new homes being planned and in development around us which, for the most part, are tied in with new roads, cycleways, pavements and infrastructure to support. This small development has no connection to the wider picture and it seems completely out of step with the ongoing BEW scheme.
