Hi again Simon

Thank you for replying - sorry to hear things are hectic. Obviously from a commercial point of view if decisions are made earlier that would be fantastic but we do understand that this is out of your control. We agree to the extension to the 18th June and look forward to hearing from the department.

With very best wishes

Dear Karen,

You are correct in that the planning department is very busy. I am currently at least a month behind on applications and am therefore advising applicants that I need their agreement to an extension of time of a month. Could you therefore agree to an extension until the 18th June please. However, please note that we have recently taken on two new temporary agency planners and are expecting a third to start next week. This should help to spread out caseloads better and may result in decisions being made quicker.

Kind Regards

Good morning Simon

I hope this email finds you well.

I understand that the planning department is likely to be very busy at present but I was just wondering when we might expect an update on the above application as the aim date for decision was the 15th May. I would be very grateful for any guidance you can offer.

Many thanks for your time.

With very best wishes

Karen Shrimpton
