Dear Nicola

Further to our conversation of this morning I am pleased to attach a revised set of floor plans with north point removed.

I trust this is satisfactory and that the application will now be registered.

Thank you for your assistance

Kind regards

Alistair

Hi Justin

One further issue has been flagged up, some of the north points on the floor plan drawings for the individual plots are not accurate.

I have suggested that we simply remove the north points from all of the individual plot drawings, can you please therefore do this for me and re-issue me these drawings by return.

Thanks very much.

Al

Hi Jason

Can I please ask you to have a look at the issues raised within the attached.

In short a discrepancy in the elevation and floor plans for plot 2 and a request for floor plans for garages.

Thank you.

Al
