Dear Simon

Just a quick note to confirm that the landscape plan is being updated with detailed planting information and I am hoping to be able to send it to you later today.

I am also conscious that Laura returns from leave today and would be hugely grateful if you are able to chase her for her final response on the drainage information submitted last week.

As previously discussed, time is very much against us and a decision within the statutory period (prior to 12th July) is absolutely key for our business.

I very much appreciate your ongoing assistance with this project.

Kind regards

Alistair
