Julie

Thanks for your email. Now that we have received the planning approvals I have arranged to see the client later this week and will return the necessary paperwork on CIL to you then. [REDACTED]

Many thanks.

The application has now had a decision. If they wish to have the relief attached to the liability notice, they should send it as a matter of urgency.

Can you please confirm an email address for both Mr & Mrs Homer. It is a requirement that we have their emails and not 'c/o'.

Kind regards

Julie

Just for your information, if we don't receive the exemption form before decision, the Liability Notice will go out showing the full CIL amount payable.

Julie

Dear Mr Bennett,

I'm emailing you regarding CIL on the above application. You have stated that you wish to apply for exemption but we have not received the forms for this. To enable us to apply this to the application, we must receive the completed exemption form and the Form 2:Assumption of Liability.

I look forward to receiving these.

Kind regards,

Julie
