

Application No: AL/40/21/PL

There is no known evidence that this particular site contains anything of archaeological interest and the size of the development would not be such that unexpected discoveries are likely. In the circumstances there is no archaeological reason to object or to require any other mitigation measures.

James Kenny
Archaeology advisor
03/06/2021