Hi Philip,

Thanks I have your other emails. The image supplied suggests a dark grey/black colour tile. If that is correct then having regard to the materials approved on the adjacent Barratts site then this is ok. Please supply the amended schedule by the end of this Thursday.

Kind Regards

Hi Simon

I just wanted to check that you got my email and all attachments I sent last week to deal with the various amendments on the conditions. If you can confirm.

Also we want to change the roof tile to the attached. Can you confirm that this will be ok and I can update the drawings and material spec.

Regards
