Dear Michelle,

We do not always wait for consultation responses before making a decision. We may not therefore have the full picture when a decision is made but at the same time it is a resource issue to keep chasing consultees.

If it is indeed early September then this is fine and yes we will need an EoT although I'll wait and agree this with you once I have the submission and can work out how long is required to meet a Committee date.

Kind Regards.

Hi Simon,

We'd be targeting very early September, so w/c 5th for the re-submission. I just wanted to inform you to help manage your case load over the following weeks as I know a lot of people take leave so it can be a very busy time. If it would assist in terms of 'pressures from above' – we'd be happy to agree to a formal extension of time?

As far as I am aware we are still awaiting several consultee responses on this application as well – as such I don't see that the LPA would be in a position to make a determination at this stage, without this input?

We are obviously seeking to work positively with the LPA to reach a positive recommendation for the application and don't wish for the application to be refused. However, neither do we feel it is necessary to withdraw and re-submit – as this would simply re-start the reconsultation process – with some consultees not even having responded to the initial one.

All of the revisions we are making are to address specific consultee comments and improve the proposed development, we hope these can therefore, be accepted as part of this application and will submit them to you as swiftly as possible.

Kind Regards,

Michelle

Dear Michelle,

Thanks. Can you advise when in September you expect to be ready. The longer this application goes on the more pressure I will be under from above to refuse based say on insufficient information. It would actually be helpful if you could withdraw and resubmit.

Kind Regards

Hi Simon,

Hope all is well.

Just to update you – owing to annual leave amongst the team we don't anticipate the full package of amendments will be ready until September (just to keep you updated re: timescales).

Thanks,

Michelle
