

I confirm that the brick plinth is the same brick as the main brickwork and the tile hanging is the same as the roof tiling.

Many thanks
Susan

Good afternoon,

I have just been taking a look at your submission for discharging the materials condition at the address above. I can see from the approved elevations that there is some tile hanging proposed, as well as the proposed roof tiles. The elevations also reference a feature brick plinth. Please could you confirm if just one type of brick is to be used in the construction, and whether then tiles used for the tile hanging sections are to be the same as the roof tiles specified?

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,

Hebe Smith (she/her)
