Dear Sir/Madam,

Town & Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)
Town & Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015

Application No: AL/56/20/HH
Site Address: Norton Dairy Old Dairy Lane Norton Aldingbourne PO20 3AF
Description of works: Rear extension and ancillary buildings to existing dwelling. This application may affect the setting of a conservation area.

Thank you for your internet representation made on 28th August 2020 which has been recorded as an objection with the comments as follows:

OWPC29300

Mr Lissamore has been told that he is in breach of covenants held at the Land Registry as I hold the 'Retained Land'. He has admitted to these breaches. I hold restrictive covenants on the land preventing any extensions, alterations and buildings without my written approval of plans. I have pasted the relevant covenants from the transfer. '3. No other buildings shall at any time be erected and no other external alterations or extensions shall be carried out to the existing buildings on the property unless the plans of such building or alterations have been submitted to and approved by the Transferor.

4. Not to use the Property for any other purpose than as a holiday/tourist cottage in accordance with Planning Permission AL/92/08 and in particular not to carry on any trade business or profession whatsoever or use the Property or permit it to be used as a private residence.

5. Not to deal or permit to be suffered to be done anything in or upon the Property that may be or may grow to be a nuisance annoyance or disturbance to the Transferor and his successors in title the owners or occupiers for the time being of any part of the Retained Land.'

Also I believe the proposed planning to be overdevelopment.

Your views as made above will be considered before the application is determined.

Please be aware that Planning Services operate an 'open file' policy and will publish your comments on the website. Please make sure that you have only provided information that you are happy will be published in this way. If you have supplied information belonging to a third party, you must make sure you have their permission to do so. If you do not wish your comments to appear on the website or on the file you will need to confirm this by emailing to planning@arun.gov.uk and I will arrange for it to be destroyed although this means that the content will then be disregarded.

The majority of applications are determined under delegated powers by officers. Further information on the decision making process can be found on the website at :https://www.arun.gov.uk/planning-decision-process.

Some applications will be determined by the Development Control Committee, and I shall write and inform you of the date of the meeting and the procedures for public speaking if this is the case. However, if your representation has been received after the agenda for the meeting has been finalised and the notifications have been generated, you will not receive notification. In this case, you will need to track the progress of the application on the council's website <https://www.arun.gov.uk/weekly-lists>

Any comments that are received after the agenda has been finalised will be separately reported to the members of the Development Control Committee.

Regardless of how the application is determined I will notify you of the decision.

In the event of a subsequent written representations appeal, against a refusal of planning permission on a householder application any representations made on the application will be automatically forwarded to the Secretary of State. Unlike all other types of appeal, there will be no further opportunity to comment at the appeal stage.

Yours sincerely

Neil Crowther
Group Head of Planning
