Hi Daun

Thank you for your email. My main enquiry was with regard to the Biodiversity Survey. If this porch extension was carried out under Permitted development, this question would not be raised. The reason for this new application is because the previous application is incomplete, the porch is on the rear of the property.

Thank you for your help it just seems unnecessary for just a porch.

Regards
Brian

Mr Martin,

I see you made the payment of £2.00 that was due for this application.

As far as the Biodiversity Report for the Singleton and Cocking Tunnel, I have attached the Validation Requirements for a Householder application. You need to look at section 3.

If you don't think you need the survey, you may email me directly to say why.

Hope this helps!

Regards
Daun
