Hi Julie

I understand that the larger figure is volume. Your floor area is correct. I am sorry the wrong figure was used.

Kind regards

Liz

Thank you Liz,

I just have a query regarding one of the measurements for the Grain Dryer barn. You have it down as being 1912sqm, however, myself and Simon Davies have calculated it to be roughly around 220sqm? That's quite a difference. Can you advise? Has the plan got the wrong scale on it and that is why we are getting such a smaller measurement?

Thanks,

Julie

Dear James

Please see below.

We need to demonstrate the recent use of the Lidsey buildings. You will recall that you did this with the previous application. Could you provide the information again and send direct or viw me.

Many thanks

Liz

Good morning,

I hope this email finds you well?!

I am currently working on this file with regards to CIL. On your CIL 1 Additional Information form, you indicate that you are proposing to demolish four 'in use' buildings. To enable me to 'net' this floor area off, you must provide proof that the buildings have been "in lawful use" for a continuous period of 6 months within the last 3 years. Details of information acceptable to prove in use for a period of 6 months can be found on our FAQ, see 4.9 in the attached document <https://www.arun.gov.uk/download.cfm?doc=docm93jjim4n15885.pdf&ver=16390>.

I look forward to hearing from you,

Kind regards,

Julie
