Dear Mrs Johnson,

Further to your letter please find attached the following:

1. A revised block plan with dimensions to boundaries and location of bins sited. The orientation of the house has been flipped so that it now fronts south. Changes to the indicative landscaping are also shown.
2. Revised floor plans and elevations to take account of the re-orientation of the dwelling.
3. A further 1:2500 scale location plan which shows the full extent of the blue land.
4. A revised D&A Statement which takes account of the re-orientation of the dwelling.

The result is that all the documentation originally submitted apart from the the location plan, proposed floor plans, existing elevations/floor plans and application forms are superseded.

Please therefore make sure that in registering the application the correct plans and documents are uploaded.

Kind Regards

Michael Gray
