Dear Darren,

I am sorry for not being in touch. Due to the size of my caseload I have a number of overdue applications including yours and it would be a full time job just letting people know what is going on. You are reasonably close to the top of the pile (I have 8 more overdue than yours) but I have also have a Committee report in December and then we are closed for a week over xmas so I would anticipate being able to make the decision by mid to late January.

Kind Regards

Dear Simon

I am enquiring as to the above planning application. Is there anything else you require or is there a reason for the delay in why the application is still undecided. You can reach me on [REDACTED]

Kind Regards
