

Design and Access statement

Design

New roof covering with altered windows to rear elevation described more fully in the heritage statement and plans which have been supplied

Access

Available through the house or from the drive and parking area in the garden, which has direct access to the rear of the house