Simon

Thank you for your rapid response and your advice. You know the form far better than I do and I would be happy to go with your suggestion

Dear Mr Scutt,

Personally, I would suggest the following as avoids the need to refer to the dwelling which may confuse people. This is also in line with other applications that I have previously dealt with.

"Change of use of existing separate annexe to furnished holiday let"

Kind Regards

Dear Mr Davis

Ref AL/81/18/PL

I am in receipt of Mr Crowthers letter of 22 Aug and am thankful that my application has been accepted as valid. I understand from this letter that you are my case officer.

When I originally made my application the words "of a garden annexe" were in the development description. This initially caused confusion. It is for consideration that the development description should read " Change of use of existing dwelling to mixed use dwelling & and use of existing annexe for holiday lets".

I feel this would describe the development more accurately.

I look forward to your comments

Roger Scutt
