Subject: RE: Applications to remove planning conditions on Aldingbourne Park and Beechfield Park

Good afternoon,

Thank you for your e-mail and apologies for the delay; as you will know, I have been out of the office.

In relation to the applications to remove the conditions concerning the number of units at Aldingbourne and Beechfield, Environmental Health remain of the opinion that the conditions remain relevant on the grounds of avoiding an overcrowding appearance, visual amenity and in securing satisfactory standards of space with regard to amenity.

Kind regards,

Katye Giddings.

Good morning Kate

I am conscious that we have not yet spoken, but that you wanted to consider the details, and that you would then respond.

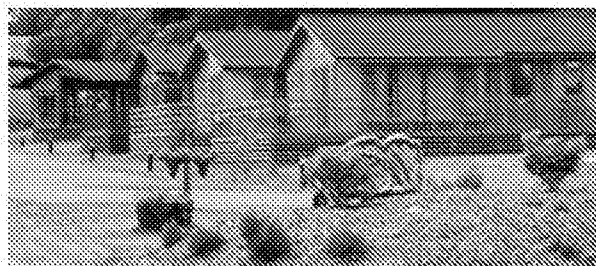

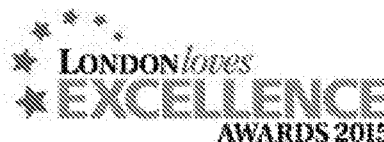

I remain happy to speak to you, particularly if this will help us all move forward.

Kind regards

John Preston.
