Dear Finlay,
Please accept this email as instruction to retract our application for the proposed tree work, on the grounds that an application is not required. We will therefore carry out the work as described. Many thanks,
John Dickens

Dear Mr Dickens,

I am writing to you to advise you about you application. Aruns Tree officer has advised me that he doubt any of the trees would have been established at the time of the Tree Preservation Order's creation. He also advises that he does not believe any of those trees are of sufficient or potential public amenity value to justify the making of an Order to preserve their place in the landscape. Therefore, I conclude our consent to carry out the proposed work is not required.

Following on from this I would like to recommend that you withdraw this application and that you proceed with the proposed works without further recourse to this authority.

If you would like to withdraw the application then please respond so that I have a copy I can put on the system and withdraw the application for you.

I look forward to hearing your response.

Regards

Finlay
