FAO Mrs Johnson

Further to your letter today please find attached an amended site plan (PL-04A) with dimensions added showing the distance of the proposals to the boundaries. Note that the extension to the side is positioned so the eaves is in line with the boundary with No12.

We can confirm we are in agreement to the amendment to the application description.

We hope that this now allows the application to be registered. If however you need any additional information please do not hesitate to contact me.

Regards

Simon
