Oh Sian,
That is great news so you don't need anything more from me? I confirm it's still 5.5m.

Many thanks
Wendy

Dear Wendy

Apologies I didn't call yesterday I was on a half day and had finished by 11. I have spoke to the council regarding the splay and crossover and they have confirmed it is fine and no amendments will be required. Please just confirm the crossover will be 5.5m as shown on the block plan. The scale bar on your plan isn't measuring to scale but this is not needed so with your permission I can remove it for you. Apart from that the application is fine. If you would still like to discuss please let me know when is best to call and I will do

Best regards

Sian
