Dear Mr David,

Apologies for the delay, I am currently in the process of changing roles at Arun which means I have to share my week.

Yes based on the information received from the Tree Officer you are able to continue with these works. If you could just confirm you are happy for the application to be withdrawn I will then close the file.

Many Thanks

Charlotte

Dear Ms Burrows,

Thank you for your communication yesterday. We did indeed meet Mr Warwick although we were unaware that the trees did not form part of the order until we read his comments to you on the planning portal.

I therefore assume that these works do not require any planning permission and we can carry out the works immediately.

Would you be kind enough to confirm this is correct and if this is the case please withdraw the application.

May I thank you for your kind assistance it is appreciated.

Kind regards,

Mike David.

Dear Mr David,

I write to you regarding the application you have submitted at March Wind, Dark Lane, Aldwick.

I understand you have met with Mark Warwick our Arboriculturist and that he has confirmed to you that the trees forming part of this application are not protected by the Tree Preservation Order. I am therefore writing to you to ask if you would like to withdraw this application.

Kind Regards

Charlotte Burrows
